Intercollegiate Bowl 2022

James Earp provided a report and overview of the 2023 Intercollegiate Bowl including the new student mixer, pre-conference educational session, and capstone or year-end project competition. Information and details will be posted in November.

Drew Corn reported that Harlan Jefferson will begin teaching the course PADM 5100 Local Government Management at the University of North Texas (UNT) and the class will participate in the ICB. He also stated he can contact UNT or The University of Texas-Arlington to determine if dorm rooms are available for students to rent while attending the ICB.

ELGL Status

Tristan Gideon reported the former co-founder and executive director for Engaging Local Government Leaders (ELGL) resigned to pursue other opportunities. Samantha Harkins is serving as interim executive director. Jackson Daly and Tristan met with Samantha and reported the #ELGLInspire events were on hold for the fall semester, but they plan to resume in the 2023 spring semester. Samantha also stated that ELGL wants to continue its partnership with TCMA. She will draft a formal partnership agreement for TCMA's consideration following the ELGL board meeting.

MIR Subcommittee Appointment

Committee Chair Michelle Rivera will review the current roster of MIRs and appoint a new MIR Subcommittee Chair.

Student Membership

Julie Couch reported an eleven percent increase in student membership since the July 18 Committee meeting.

Website and Social Media

Joe Price requested that Committee members and MIRs continue to find content to share for social media outlets.

Meeting adjourned at 11:54 a.m.
