The Committee took a lunch break at Noon.

Kim Pendergraft provided an update on the status of the 100 Year TCMA Annual Conference.

At 1:00 p.m., the Committee began planning the 2023 Conference. The theme of the Conference will be “Play to W!N.”

The Committee requested that staff include the following question on the next Conference survey: “The current TCMA Conference schedule is Thursday through Sunday. What four days of the week do you prefer?” Each region president will be requested to discuss the question with their region members.

A registration table will be available for first time attendees. Staff will purchase lanyards and send a list of first time attendees to Rebecca Vice. Rebecca will develop a schedule to host the table. Paulette Hartman, Taylor Lough, Joe Vera, and Danny Zincke will assist.

The Committee planned the concurrent session topics and speakers. Upon confirmation, notice should be send to Kim Pendergraft. The deadline is December 1.

At 4:00 p.m., the Committee toured three locations for the Friday night family event.

The Committee adjourned at 6:00 p.m. and reconvened on August 26 at 8:30 a.m.

The Committee decided the Friday night family event would be held at The HUB. Rebecca Vice will arrange travel and lawn games.

Kim Pendergraft will research if the following keynote speakers are available: Kevin Brown (Friday); Nancy Keiberman or Kat Osterman (Saturday); John Quinones (Sunday). Bill Lindley will research if Troy Aikman is available for the Friday opening session.

With nothing else on the agenda, the meeting was adjourned at 10:00 a.m.
